

Your guardian made a decision.

You are not happy.

What can you do?

Your guardian made a decision. Like

- where your new home is
- how many people live in your home
- who will help you each day.

You do not agree with his decision.

You are not happy.

Your guardian will write to you. They will tell you

- who they talked to
- what they said
- why they think it is a good decision for you.

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thur	Fri	Sat

It may take 4 weeks to tell you.

It is the same as 28 days.

You understand why they made that decision.

You agree with what they say. That is good.

Or

You are still not happy.

You think they made the wrong decision.

You do not think this is a good decision.

You need to write to the Public Guardian.

Or

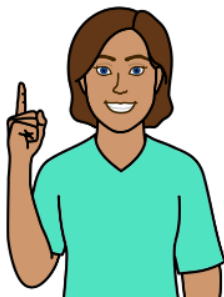

Call 1800 810 979.

You say

- why you think it was a bad decision
- what you want to happen.

You can tell your guardian other things.

These things are important to you.

It may help the decision.

You can ask for help to write your letter.

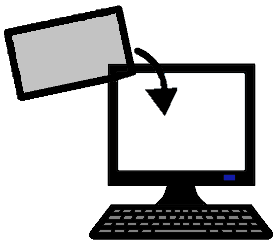

Send your letter to

The Office of the Public Guardian.

GPO Box 1722

Darwin NT 0801.

Or

Email

public.guardian@nt.gov.au

What will the Office of the Public Guardian do?

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thur	Fri	Sat

We write to you.

It tells you we have your letter.

This may take 2 weeks.

This is the same as 14 days.

A different person reads your file.

This person was not at your meeting.

They think about your problem.

They decide what may be best for you.

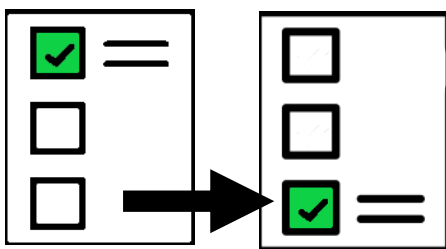

They write a report. It is for the Public Guardian.

The report helps the Public Guardian know what to do.

We write to you. It is a new letter.

We will tell you

- the decision will change

or

- the decision will stay the same.

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thur	Fri	Sat

It may take 4 weeks to tell you.

It is the same as 28 days.

You are still not happy

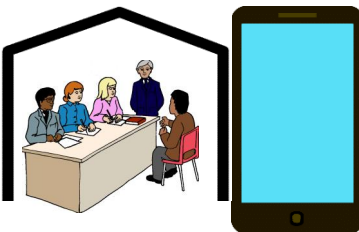

You can call a different Tribunal.

They are called the

NT Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

Some people call it NT CAT.

They are different from the Public Guardian.

Call

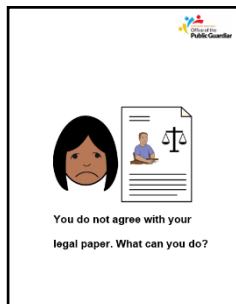

1800 604 622.
